Suspect Arrested in Robbery from Individual: 1st Block of West Sherwood Avenue

The Hampton Police Division has arrested, Brandon J. Jenkins, in connection with a robbery from individual that occurred on December 22nd, 2015.

At 10:37 P.M., Public Safety Communications received a call in reference to a robbery from individual that had just occurred in the 1st block of West Sherwood Avenue. The investigation revealed that the victim, a 37-year-old Hampton man, observed the suspect looking into a parked vehicle when he approached the suspect to inquire what he was doing. The suspect implied that he had a firearm and demanded the victim's property. The victim complied and gave the suspect his wallet that contained an undisclosed amount of US currency. The suspect then forced the victim to remove his clothing and assaulted the victim. The victim sustained minor, non-life-threatening injuries as a result of this offense which did not require medical treatment. The suspect fled from the area and was last observed running towards North Mallory Street. Officers located the suspect and he was apprehended.

Brandon J. Jenkins, a 28-year-old Hampton man with a last known address in the 1st Block of West Sherwood, was arrested in connection with this incident. He was charged with one count of Robbery, one count of Possession of a Firearm by a Convicted Felon. He remains in custody at the Hampton City Jail.
